

Kristy Jones, Marketing for LexisNexus Hong Kong and Taiwan

I'm Kristy Jones, I went to Stuartholme School from grade 8 through to grade 12 and I finished in the Class of 2001.

At the moment I live in Hong Kong. I manage the Marketing Department for LexisNexus Hong Kong and Taiwan. LexisNexus is a global content and information provider and I work with the greater China team.

I love living in Hong Kong, it's such an amazing city. There's such a buzz and there's so much to do. It's a really get in and live life to the max kind of place; you don't sit on the sidelines.

Stuartholme's definitely influenced my career. I've been able to take a lot of the lessons learnt and apply it to living and working in Asia. It really gave me a lot of confidence and self-assuredness in who I am and my ability to work with a lot of different people from a lot of different backgrounds and I definitely learnt a lot of that at Stuartholme School.

There are some things that have really stuck with me all the way through my career and my personal life from Stuartholme. The confidence, the ability to go out and give anything a shot, the dedication and application that you need to take in life to both your studies and sport and whatever it is you're doing has really, really stayed with me.

Us Stuartholme girls have such a supportive network and it even extends to living in Hong Kong. We've got a great group of us, we go shopping, we go for coffee, we do fun-runs together and we really are a great support for each other.
