

Sr Rita Carroll
Stuartholme Chaplain and Sister of the Sacred Heart

TRANSCRIPT

My name is Rita Carroll and I'm one of the Religious of the Sacred Heart who (in conjunction with School Board) runs this School and I'm the only one left now who's working full time.

The Spirit of Cor Unum is very important here and I think it's something that we've all tried to foster and it's very strong among the students. As you watch the students leave, the classes have always stuck together.

We have many stories of the support they give each other and the support we hope that they find when they come visit back in the School. It was always dinned into us that once a child of the Sacred Heart, you'd always be one and you'd always get a welcome.

As I sometimes say to parents, well if your daughter fits somewhere between the Empress of Japan and Lady Gaga (who were both educated in Sacred Heart Institutions), we can probably educate her.

It's a great place. It's a place of beauty. I think someone described it I think in one of our documents as an educational sanctuary. I think it's probably a pretty good description of it.
